

READMISSION FOLLOWING SCHOLARSHIP TERMINATION

A graduate student who is excluded from the institution for academic reasons may petition to be reinstated. A student who petitions to be reinstated must have been out of the institution for at least twelve months. A petition to be reinstated must be approved by the Appeals Committee of the Graduate Council and the Dean of the Graduate School. Any graduate student who has been excluded twice for scholastic reasons will not be readmitted to the Graduate School.