

ALBANY STATE UNIVERSITY

Albany State University is an integral part of the system of higher education maintained by the State of Georgia. The University is one of 26 institutions of higher learning governed by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.

Albany State University recruits, admits, provides financial aid, and other services and instruction to all students without regard to racial identification, religion, gender, disability or national origin. The University is also an equal opportunity and equal rights employer in that all applicants for faculty, staff and student employment positions are considered without regard to racial identification, religion, gender, disability or national origin. Albany State University has always opened its doors to all applicants and continues to value diversity in its student body, faculty, staff and administration. It actively recruits to ensure a broad representation of students and faculty and promotes a campus culture that respects and appreciates the individuality of every student, faculty member, staff person and administrator.

The statements set forth in this catalog are for information purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of contract between students and this institution. While provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Albany State University reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to, academic requirements for graduation, without specific notice to individual students. Every effort, however, will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information about such changes will be available in the Graduate School. Students are responsible for keeping apprised of current graduation requirements of their particular degree program.

Albany State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity educational institution.
