

MUSEUM STUDIES MINOR

The Museum Studies Minor is a multi-disciplinary minor intended to prepare a student to enter a museum-related profession or to supplement the major area of study with skill sets that are valuable for numerous professions. This minor includes an internship and various experiential learning projects. The Museum Studies minor is open to a variety of majors, as there are many different types of museums, libraries, galleries, zoos, and historic sites and many different jobs within such organizations.

Code	Title	Semester Hours
ARTS 4501	Museum and Exhibition Studies	3
ARTS 4408	Arts and Culture Internship	3
Choose Three Courses		9
ARTS 4403	Modern Art History
ARTS 4406	African-American Art
MGED 4422	Social Studies in the Middle Grades
MGMT 4127	Small Business Management
CSCI 4915	Web Design and Development
HIST 2117	Intro to Public History
Total Semester Hours		15