

PROFESSIONAL WRITING, MINOR

With the increasing need for effective communication in various fields of study, the Department of English, Modern Languages and Mass Communication offers two minor fields of study in English Literature and Professional Writing. These minors complement a variety of majors in Pre-Law, Criminal Justice, Business, Political Science, History, or else in the Technical, Social Service or Teaching Fields.

Each minor requires a minimum of 18 hours above the CORE English courses requirement, and each course must be completed with a grade of "C" or better.

Code	Title	Semester Hours
Required Courses
ENGL 2105	Creative Writing	3
ENGL 2204	Advanced Composition	3
ENGL 3106	Technical Writing	3
ENGL 3204	Rhetoric and Adv Writing	3
In addition, two guided electives (6 hours) are required from the following list:		6
ENGL 2406	Literary Forms
ENGL 3305	Modern Grammar
COMM 2000	News Writing and Reporting
COMM 3205	Introduction to Public Relations
COMM 3210	Writing for Public Relations
COMM 3120	Media Aesthetics and Criticism
Total Semester Hours		18