DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, POLITICAL SCIENCE, AND INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

The Department of History, Political Science & Public Administration offers three majors at the baccalaureate level, one in the area of history, one in the area of political science, and one as a double major in history and political science. The majors in history and political science are designed to prepare researchers for graduate work, government service or industry. A student who majors in history or political science must complete a minimum of 48 semester hour courses beginning at the 2000 level.

History and Political Science Minors

Minor programs are offered in History, Political Science, Pre-Law, International Affairs, Public Administration, and African/African-American Studies. Each minor program consists of 18 semester hours beyond the core requirements. The programs prepare students for professional careers and advanced study in History, Political Science, Law, and Public and Private Sector Administration. Internship experiences in Political Science and Public Administration are available.

Pre-Law Program

The Department of History, Political Science, and Public Administration has an excellent Pre-Law Program that is grounded in the tradition of a sound liberal arts education. Our Pre-Law advisors are experienced in guiding students in course selection and providing pertinent information about law schools of the Law Admission Council. There is a non-credit tutorial program that offers instruction in preparing for the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). The LSAT preparation course utilizes lectures, discussions and in-class exercises of past questions. Participation is open to all students.

The requirements for entrance to law school can be satisfied in one of several majors. Two, three or four years in a B.A. or B.S. degree can comprise the pre-law program.

Interested students should select a degree program and electives that will help them to attain the following objectives:

1. Fluency in written and spoken English;
2. The ability to read difficult material with rapidity and comprehension;
3. A solid background in American history and government;
4. A broad basic education in social and cultural areas;
5. A fundamental understanding of business, including basic account procedures; and
6. The ability to reason logically.
