

REGENTS CENTER FOR LEARNING DISORDERS (RCLD)

The Regents Center for Learning Disorders (RCLD) at Georgia Southern University is one of three centers in Georgia established by the Board of Regents to provide assessment, resource, and research related to students with learning disorders. The Center services students from GSU and twelve additional institutions in the southern areas of the state including Albany State University.

Students with a history and/or those perceived as having learning disabilities, ADHD, or psychological disabilities may be referred by the enrolling institution's disability service provider for a comprehensive assessment, feedback on appropriated academic accommodations and recommendations for optimal educational achievement.

Disability service providers may consult with the Center regarding disability documentation and assessments performed by other professionals.
